Spring Edition

"Parents Reaching Parents" Blog Update

Parents Reaching Parents is a blog designed to provide support, encouragement and prayer to parents with children living the gay lifestyle. Since its launch in October, Parents Reaching Parents has brought parents together from around the globe to share their journey with each other. It is an excellent opportunity for parents to communicate with those who truly understand your situation and the unconditional love we have for our children. If you haven't been on the blog, we encourage you to take part in this opportunity to encourage others and share how God is working in your life.

We are pleased to announce that on May 16th, Parents Reaching Parents will begin a Bible study using the book Just Enough Light for the Step I'm On - Trusting God in the Tough Times by Stormie Omartian. Join fellow parents as we surrender our children to our mighty God and grow closer to Him. Find our blog at <http://www.parentreachingparents.wordpress.com> for more details.

Prayer Line

We have been having such a powerful time every Monday night as we gather over the phone for corporate prayer. I just wanted to take the time to thank all of those who have joined us thus far. I am sure that you have been blessed not only by the prayers, but also by the stories and testimonies that have been shared during this powerful time.

If you have not joined us, I just want to encourage you to be on the line this Monday. I know that we will continue to feel the power that corporate anointing brings, but I am positive that this week God will take it to the next level! Invite someone and join us for prayer this Monday evening!

Jim's Story: "Saving our marriage through God's Grace"

I want a divorce...and by the way, I think I'm gay. There is no way to prepare yourself to hear these words from your wife, nor are there any words to truly describe the impact. I was totally shocked by both, and was especially in disbelief that my wife could really be gay. I literally was sick to my stomach, struggling with the thought of my wife with another, especially a woman. I was shocked, disappointed, angry, and empty. My self-esteem plummeted to a ridiculous low. I asked myself am I to blame for this in any way? Is it something that I have done or not done to push her to this life? Her mind it seemed was made up and I was left feeling totally helpless-until we connected with Janet Boynes Ministries (JBM).

JBM made an immediate impact. Janet has helped lead my wife back to God and continues to help her deal with issues from her past that contributed to her same-sex attraction. She has also helped me on my journey - to grow my faith, find a way to completely forgive my wife, rebuild trust in our marriage, and simply just to be a better man. She has built a support system around us in our church and with a local Christian counselor that will carry us through the ups and downs of rebuilding our marriage.

The journey is ongoing; it's a marathon and not a sprint. I stay close to the Word, and pray for patience as my wife works on inner healing from her past. I try to remember that it's not my job to understand her past and why it has impacted her. I continue to work on rebuilding trust; an important step in the process of forgiveness.

I am extremely grateful, as God's grace has truly saved our marriage through JBM!

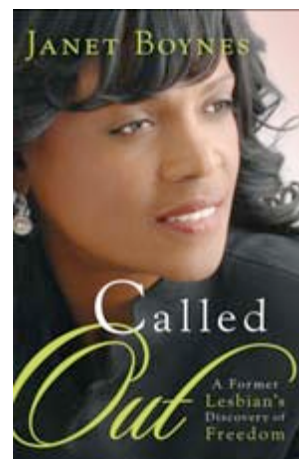

Our Team Needs Your Help!

JBM has been able to do some extraordinary things to help further its established goals of Evangelism: ministering to the homosexual community, informing the secular and religious community how to assist same sex attracted individuals, and teaching the Word of God to inspire change. Here is how you can help the ministry:

1. Pray for us. Please continue to lift the ministry, board, staff, and volunteers up in prayer, and for Janet in her last year in college.
2. Help spread the Word. It is our desire this year to reach more churches and communities through speaking engagements. If you have been blessed by this ministry, we ask that you help open the door for others through purchasing extra books or helping to coordinate a speaking engagement at your local church or within your local community.
3. Become a consistent financial partner of this ministry. Prayerfully consider making a donation every month to JBM, so that we can continue to provide hope and resources to those coming out of this lifestyle and the families of those still in the gay community. We can guarantee that this is good ground and that your seed will be used to further the work of the gospel.

Thank you all for everything you have done to support this ministry!
