Winter Edition

A New Year, A Renewed Mind!

Welcome to a new year, a new decade, and for so many a new beginning. The world likes to use this time of year to make "resolutions" or commitments of things that they will do. However, I am sure that like most of you I begin this year not consumed with my plans but consumed with the greatest question of all – "God, what is it that you desire for me to do?" In order for us to tap into the plans that God has for our life, it is so important that we learn to serve him not only in our hearts – which produces thoughts, but also with our minds - which produces actions. The Bible tells us in Romans 7:25: So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin. If it is your desire to serve God you must renew your mind.

We all have those areas in our lives that stand in the way of our service to God. Your struggle could be same sex attractions, loving your child who struggles or even forgiving yourself. No matter what it is, your first step to overcoming is found in Romans 12:2 – And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what [is] that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. When you renew your mind through your study of the word, your quiet time with God, and your confessions of faith – you will become living proof of God's perfect will. Join me this year as we commit to this new year with a renewed mind. May God bless you and continue to pray for me as I pray for you.

Blessings,
Janet Boynes

“Called Out” Testimony: Rachel’s Story

One day I asked my husband of 11 years for a divorce. I explained to him that I thought I was gay. I had been unfaithful to my husband more than once with a woman and was convinced this was the path I was destined for. After making contact with JBM, Janet has dedicated herself and others involved in her ministry to saving my marriage and my family. It has been a journey, one Janet has remained steadfast and committed to even when I wanted to give up. She has helped both my husband and I to renew our relationships with God and make Him the center of our relationship and our family.

Janet has helped me understand where my homosexual feelings may have initially started and steered me down a path of understanding and healing. She has built a support system around me that holds me accountable and provides me strength when the enemy knocks with temptation. Through her ministry Janet has also introduced me to other amazing women who have walked off the path of homosexuality or have loved ones that have. How powerful it is to have others to talk to who truly understand where I have been and to be blessed with first hand advice on how to cope.

Had Janet not come into our lives, I am certain that I would be in the midst of a divorce and moving towards a homosexual lifestyle. Through God’s glory, Janet’s ministry has provided a second chance; a second chance for me, my marriage and my family.

Our Team Needs Your Help!

In 2009 JBM was able to do some extraordinary things to help further its established goals of Evangelism: ministering to the homosexual community, informing the secular and religious community how to assist same sex attracted individuals, and teaching the Word of God to inspire change. We believe that 2010 is going to be an even greater year – but we need your help. Here is how you can help the ministry:

1. Pray for us. Please continue to lift the ministry, board, staff, and volunteers up in prayer, and for Janet in her last year in college.
2. Help spread the Word. It is our desire this year to reach more churches and communities through speaking engagements. If you have been blessed by this ministry, we ask that you help open the door for others through purchasing extra books or helping to coordinate a speaking engagement at your local church or within your local community.
3. Become a consistent financial partner of this ministry. Prayerfully consider making a donation every month to JBM, so that we can continue to provide hope and resources to those coming out of this lifestyle and the families of those still in the gay community. We can guarantee that this is good ground and that your seed will be used to further the work of the gospel.

Thank you all for everything you have done to support this ministry!
