Paul's Story

When our daughter first told us that she was in a same-sex relationship our hearts sank. How could this be? What went wrong? God, Why did this happen? In the end, none of those questions really mattered. What we really needed to know was how we could love her as Jesus would? How do we pray in faith for her freedom? How can we be a part of God's solution for her life, and not a hindrance to the process?

One of the things the Lord did in this process was to connect us to Janet Boynes. Because Janet has been there, and is now free, she has helped us to take positive approaches towards our daughter. Even though the first weeks and months of knowing what was really going on were very painful for us, we can now say that even then, God sustained us. God is at work in our daughter's life. We know that God is calling her out of the darkness, into His marvelous light. We will not give up. We will fight the good fight of faith for her future. Even though we still have moments of despair and frustration, there is an over-riding peace because we know we have committed her into the Lord's hands.

I pray that if you are a parent of an adult child that wrestles with same-sex attraction that you will not grow weary standing in faith for your child and their future. God is at work. God is bigger than anything the enemy can entangle any of us with. God is in the business of setting captives free.

Janet Boynes Ministry

Janet Boynes Ministries (JBM) is a non-denominational outreach dedicated to evangelism by preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ. JBM ministers to individuals who question their sexuality or who wish to leave homosexuality.

We seek to inform and challenge churches and society about the issues surrounding sexuality and how to minister to the homosexual community.

The established goals of JBM are to:

- Evangelize:
- Minister:
- Inform:
- Teach:

These goals are accomplished through public speaking events, distribution of media, and coordination with individuals, churches, ministries, and organizations.

Janet met President Bush last year during a health care event in Minnetonka.

Special needs of the ministry

JBM partners regularly with other ministries for the purposes of achieving shared ministry goals.

We are only able to operate through the help of volunteers and financial donations from people like you!

Presently, we are in need of expanding our financial partnership base. We would love for you to consider joining with us through your prayers and financial gifts in helping people go from bondage to sin, to freedom in Christ.

JBM thanks Gerald Ben-Ami for donating IT and technical support. To learn more about Gerald's services, visit www.BGTSLLC.com

JBM helps young man come out of homosexuality

My name is Christian; a year and a half ago I asked Janet to help me come out of homosexuality. Without a thought Janet has taken me under her wing, and helped show me how God can heal me from the inside out. Even though it's been a tough journey I have seen the Hand of God on Janet's life help me walk away from the lies of our society and the friends that had kept me bound in that situation. This past year Janet Boynes Ministries was able to pay for me to go to Exodus International Conference where I had the opportunity to meet other men and woman in the Faith that have come out of this struggle. This has crucially impacted my spiritual walk. Without the financial support from people like you I would not have been able to go on this conference in Los Angeles. I am so grateful to see the church come together to assist in the growth of Christ's desire of a better life through Him.

Thank you, JBM.
